

1 DELEGATE CHABOT: The statement of facts that
2 you have made with regard to the powers given to the General
3 Assemblies is, I believe, a correct one.

4 I believe it is just as correct under the present
5 Constitution with this power stated. I believe that there
6 is little doubt that the General Assembly will provide 7 enough people to handle the functions of the Attorney General's 8 office. The question is whether or not those functions are go-9 ing to be performed by a group of people who are under 10 the control of the Attorney General or whether those functions
11 are to be performed by a group of people whom the General
12 Assembly can put under its own control or under the control
13 of the Governor if the Governor and Attorney General are 14 at odds and the General Assembly sides with the Governor.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Sybert.

16 DELEGATE SYBERT: Mr. Chairman, will Delegate
17 Chabot yield to a question?

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Chabot, will you yield?

19 DELEGATE CHABOT: Yes, sir.

20 DELEGATE SYBERT: You are aware, of course,
21 that the present constitution in Section 3, Article V,
